Day 1

On the first day (Sunday) we flew and arrived to Iceland. Respectively to the Keflavík airport. Then we got our bags from the pick up and went to the school in Verzló by bus.

Some of our hosts took us for a trip around Reykjavík

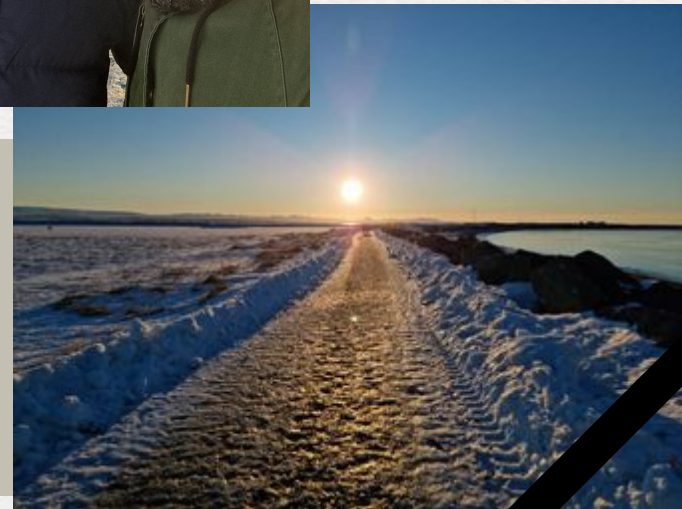

Snæþór (my host) and me

At the school we met our hosts which then took us to their homes to stay in for the duration of the trip.

And I got to the sea to see it's beauty

I even got to see some northern lights outside!!!

The next day on Monday we went to the mall after getting shown around the school by Helga (one of their teachers). And well...

After that we went home and had some lovely dinner, which was marinated chicken with olives. Then we relaxed, talked and went to bed.

Sometimes you just can't resist buying something pretty.

Cafeteria time for some lunch.

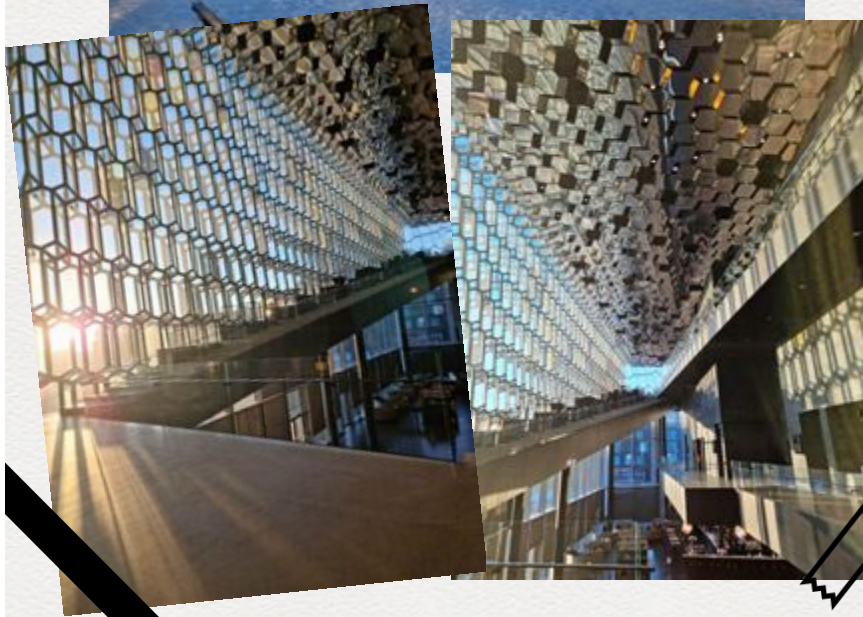

There was also a famous hotdog stand where the american president Bill Clinton ate. We were lucky there wasn't a waiting line for it.

In the city center we saw the church and many points of interest such as gift shops, restaurants, caffés and many more.

Now there were some funny things we could see...

After that we visited the opera building Harpa. And it was quite stunning to see. Sadly no tour, but a good stop it was.

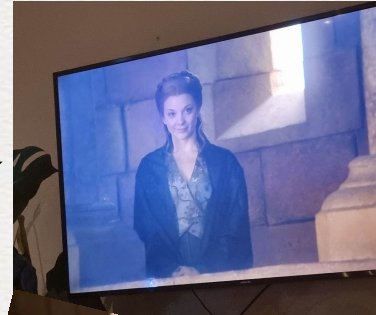

Then we finally went inside the church which had a break after a funeral. And it was quite quiet inside the church until a worker started drilling and it echoed in the whole room.

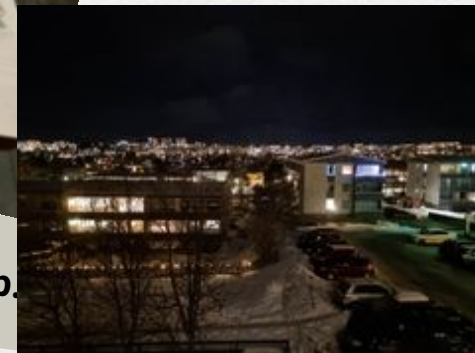

We even went to the top to see the scenery around Reykjavik and it was really good!

In the end we went home and picked up Matěj with us. Chilled, talked some sport, watched some Game of Thrones. And after Matěj left we got some KFC and for me a comparison to Czech KFC.

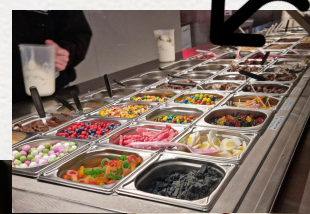

And then some sleep.

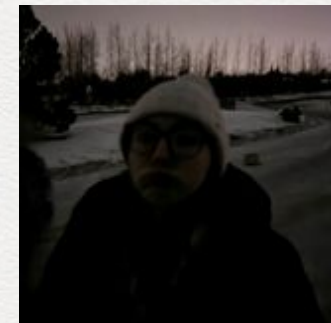

On the third day we went to school as usual and then on a trip to the university.

Choose 3 things for your ice cream!!!!

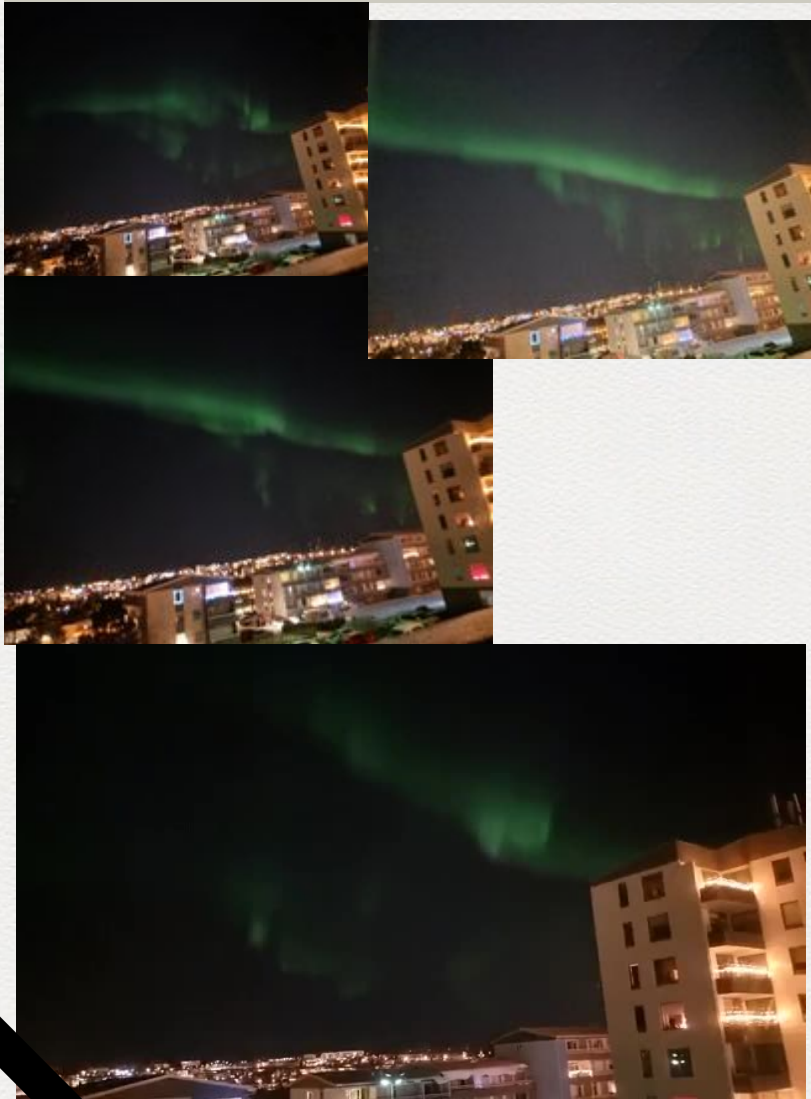

Once we got back from the university we went for some ice cream in WINTER and then decided to go hunt some northern lights.

PS: There were none, but some good stars

Humorous that after we got home we could see them out of our windows.

Golden Circle tour!!!

On Wednesday we went on a trip called the Golden Circle tour to see some beautiful scenery on Iceland. We also went with 3 other schools from Denmark, Faroe Islands and Greenland. An awesome trip.

We went to 4 destinations: 1st one was the Thingvellir National Park, 2nd one was Geysir Geothermal Area, 3rd one was the Gullfoss waterfall and the 4th and last one was a hydroponic tomato farm.

Not only the touristic destinations were beautiful. Even just the countryside managed to impress.

Next stop, the Geysir Geothermal Area where we got some small lunch for the trip handed out to us.

It's time for some frozen waterfalls.

Also a small history buff we got from our guide Syky. A memorial to Sigríður Tómasdóttir who saved the Gullfoss waterfalls

Last stop. Some fluffy horses and the hydroponic tomato farm with

The Bumblebees

The Tomato jam

Martin as our guide showing us how it's all done with the help of bumblebees and geothermal energy

Then it was time for some delicious tomato soup!

On Thursday we went to some classes at school and got taught some interesting words in Icelandic.

Day 5

Day 6

On Friday we went to school, but weren't there for a long time.

I also got a pretty cool picture, as we were heading back, of a mountain with just the sun above it between the clouds!

After school we went to Fly Over Iceland where unfortunately we could not take photos or film, but it was a really great experience!

Then we went to a pizza place where in total there were 27 pizzas for everyone. And also as the tradition calls we cheered on for the Icelandic handball team!

On Saturday we had a small tour in the parliament. Rather extraordinary to be let into the Parliament building!!!!!!

That sure made us hungry, so we went to a Laundromat Caffé where we had brunch and then we headed off to individual adventures

Me, Dea, Anička and Eliška went to Perlan. There I had some ice cream and got to see the currency of Iceland. +A magma rock.

In the evening we went to a Japanese restaurant called Tokyo for some sushi.

We also went swimming to the pools, but I didn't get any photos of that for reasons. Then we went home to sleep.

Last day and you know what time it is!!

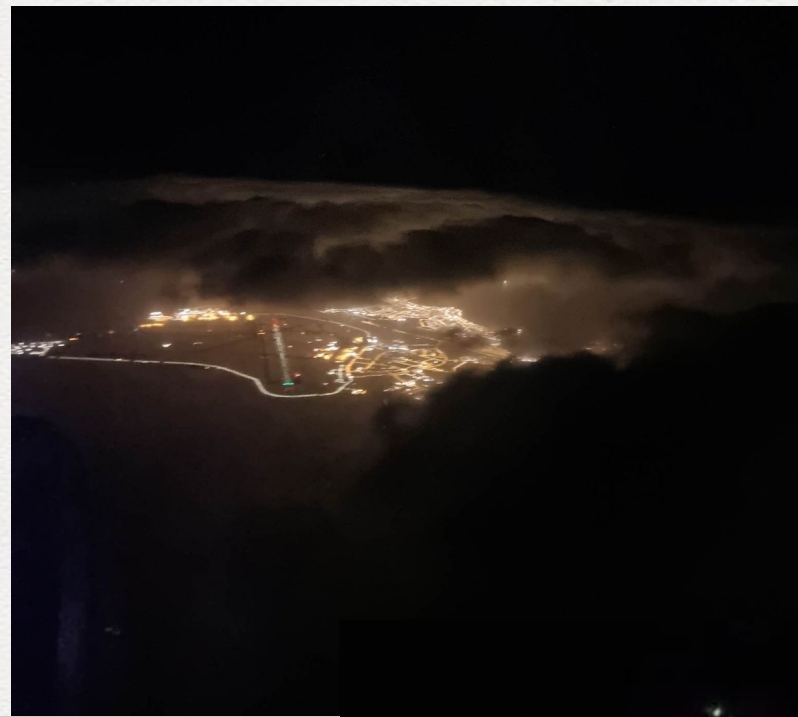

We got to the school and the bus was late 45 minutes, because of snow and wind conditions... Atleast it arrived in one piece.

Long story short. Our flight got delayed by 11 hours. We were supposed to leave at 11 AM, but ended up leaving at 10 PM.

Me exhausted in the plane.

And so we left with WizzAir at 10 PM from Keflavik Airport heading to Krakow and then a 2 hour ride home to Ostrava...

Thank you for taking your time reading and examining this book. It took way too long to create and I hope it was worth making. Be seeing you in Ostrava in March!
